Dear Nelson:

I have your good letter of 28 January and want to let you know how much I appreciate your writing to me about my talk at the Conference on Fallout Protection.

Your kind comments are particularly gratifying and it was very thoughtful of you to write to me as you did.

I very much enjoyed seeing you at the Conference.

Sincerely,

Allen W. Dulles

Dear Allen:

It was wonderful to be with you on Monday at the conference on fallout protection. Your presentation was superb and contributed importantly to a fuller understanding of the nature and scope of the problem we face. I was truly pleased with the outcome of the session and appreciate all you did more than I can say.

With warm regards and very best wishes,

Sincerely,

Nelson A. Rockefeller
